www.sherrillny.org

From The City Manager

Michael R. Sayles

I hope this letter finds you all happy and healthy and looking forward, with great anticipation, to our long awaited spring weather. As you may know, our great city is turning 100 years old on April 7th. We are ramping up our work around the City to prepare for the celebration this summer. There are many events coming together for July 29th and 30th. The volunteer committee members are working hard and are doing a great job. We are striving to create a very memorable weekend.

That said, the City is hoping we all focus on cleaning up our yards and properties this spring and summer so that we present a positive image to all our visitors, neighbors and returning former residents. We are anticipating some clean up days that will be announced in the near future. With your efforts, coupled with the Public Works efforts, we hope to present a city that is spit-shined (technical cleaning reference) that will reflect the pride we all have in our city. If you haven't already, please take a moment to go to our webpage www.sherrillny.org and register your email address so you can receive all notices on activities for the 100th as they occur. The website, along with our Facebook page and Twitter account, will have timely and up-to-date information. In the future, we will be issuing a 100th anniversary newsletter that will be a guide for everything you need to know about the celebration.

Lastly, congratulations to Chris Bailey who has been appointed Superintendent of Public Works. He has been a city resident for a dozen years and brings 18 years of construction management experience to this position. Also, congratulations to Matthew Stevens who, after a lot of rigorous training, has passed his Wastewater Treatment Plant Operator exam and is now a New York State recognized licensed Plant Operator. Nice job Matt!

God bless you all. Be well.

Michael R. Sayles

From the Fire Department...

More than 4,000 people die each year in the U.S. as a result of fires. Tens of thousands more are injured. Thousands more lose pets, keepsakes and suffer trauma that haunts them for the rest of their lives. In many cases, the deaths and injuries could have been prevented by a working smoke detector, or something as simple as an escape plan which can get you and your family out quickly and save lives. Make one for your home:

- Draw a floor plan.
- Label each room as a sleeping area, kitchen, living room, etc.
- Label the location of all doors and windows in each room.
- Label the location of helpful escape tools in each room such as ladders.
- Label all locations of smoke detectors.
- Mark your family meeting spot, located near a distinct landmark, safely away from your home.
- Post escape plans on each level of your home, in hallways and in every sleeping area. A good rule of thumb is to make sure your family's escape plan is posted with the same frequency as your smoke detectors.
- Make sure overnight guests, caretakers and/or babysitters know where escape plans are posted and review them.

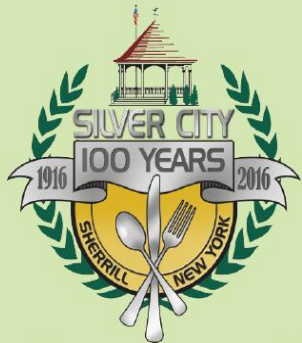

Once you have your escape plan, remember:

- Practice escaping from EVERY room in the home: The best escape plans have two ways out of each room and are practiced monthly.
- IMMEDIATELY leave the home: Designate an individual to call 911 from a neighbor's home and avoid the temptation to save property.
- NEVER open doors that are too hot to the touch: Use the back of your hand to feel the top of the door, the doorknob, and the crack between the door and the door frame. If it's hot, use your secondary escape route.
- Get low: People often succumb to smoke and toxins in the air before burns. Always remember, "Bad air up, good air down. Stay low and go."
- ONCE OUT, STAY OUT! Designate a meeting place outside and take attendance. NEVER go back into the home.
- Install working smoke detectors: Make sure there are smoke alarms on each floor, in each bedroom, and in hallways if you sleep with your bedroom door closed. Replace batteries once a year, and test smoke alarms once a month.

Advanced planning will ensure that you are ready for any fire emergency and can provide you and your loved ones peace of mind.

Sherrill History

In honor of our 100th Anniversary we've reinstated the history column. This column is an excerpt from Jack Stone's writing. Thank you Jack for sharing! If you have stories you'd like to share please contact Sara Getman, 363-6525 or sgetman@sherrillny.org

Jack Stone Looks Back Over 83+ Years

On February 9, 1942 we lost Sherrill High School to a fire. It was a sad day for the students. It housed classes 7-12. I was in the 7th grade at the time and the fire started during our noon hour. I was in the gym playing basketball with some others when smoke filled one end of the court so we went to the other end. Soon after Raymond Allen came into the gym with a jacket over his head and said, "MAC wants everyone out of the school." Ray Allen entered the Air Force like many others at the time and he was lost at sea off the England coast. MAC that I referred to was our principal and loved by all. The elementary school that now sits on the site of the fire is named E.A. McAllister in his honor. For the rest of the year 7th and 8th grades were held in the basement of St. Helena's Church. High school students spent time going from class to class and building to building around town. Before school started in September the School Board and the Superintendent had figured out what to do. Kenwood Park Elementary and Willow Place Elementary merged into one at Willow Place and Kenwood Park became the high school. The CAC became our gym for all activities and home economics classes were held upstairs. The first principal at the new E.A. McAllister School was Henry Hruby followed by Donald Everhart who was the principal there for 21 years until his retirement in 1978.
